La Madeleine is a very well-known event hall in Brussels! It received a major renovation in 2015 and is now an event and conference hall with numerous qualities and advantages.

The charm, architecture, acoustics and warmth of this iconic venue packed with history make it really worth a visit.

Situated right in the city centre (hardly 250 metres from the prestigious Grand-Place), La Madeleine has a unique atmosphere with its double flight of stairs either side of the stage, and its mezzanine.

The hall was designed to be modular and can host conferences and all types of shows, meetings and presentations. It has a stage and sound and light system. The hall is also well suited for events such as cocktail parties or even seated dinners. The large reception area equipped with cloakrooms is ideal for welcoming your guests.

Access by public transport is easy and there are numerous car parks nearby. La Madeleine is accessible for people with reduced mobility.
