

TRANSPARENCY 2023

The purpose of this page is to provide you with the information specified, on the one hand, in article 6 of the joint Decree and Ordinance of 16 May 2019 of the Brussels-Capital Region, Common Community Commission and the French Community Commission with regard to the publicity of the administration in institutions of the Brussels-Capital Region (points I to V below) and, on the other hand, article 7 of the joint ordinance of the Brussels-Capital Region and the Common Community Commission of 14 December 2017 on the transparency of the remuneration and benefits of Brussels public officials (point VI below).

CONTENTS

- I. Competences, organisation and functioning of Brussels Expo
- II. Grants
- III. Studies
- IV. Public procurement
- V. Call for candidates
- VI. Annual report on the remuneration and benefits of public officials

I. Competences, organisation and functioning of Brussels Expo

Competences of Brussels Expo

Brussels Expo's mission is to encourage and develop a centre for meetings and exchanges with a view to promoting economic, commercial, industrial, scientific, cultural and leisure activities, particularly throughout the territory and the various buildings granted to it by the City of Brussels. To this end, Brussels Expo is required to carry out all useful or necessary activities, in particular all services directly or indirectly related to the organization of fairs, congresses, symposiums, exhibitions, concerts, festivals and other events.

Its missions therefore include property management and the provision of services related to the Exhibition Halls, including the ING Arena (concert hall), the hall known as « La Madeleine » and the various events organized there.

More specifically, Brussels Expo is active in :

- 3 business sectors: Exhibitions, Entertainment and MICE (Meetings, Incentives, Conferences & Exhibitions)
- 2 professions: Venue Management and Organisation
- Various venues: the exhibition halls of Brussels Expo (including the ING Arena), "La Madeleine" in the heart of Brussels

Organisation and functioning

To be a member of the association, one must be a member of the Brussels City Council and be appointed by the City Council to be a member of the association, or be specially authorised by the City Council to be a member because of particular expertise that is useful to the association. The Mayor of the City of Brussels is a full member of the association.

The Association is administered by a Board of Directors of at least three people, who may be natural persons or legal entities, members or not, appointed by the General Assembly for a renewable term of six years.

II. Grants

Brussels Expo has not granted any subsidies in 2023.

III. Studies

No study has been carried out for Brussels Expo in 2023.

IV. Public procurement

Brussels Expo did not conclude any public contracts as a contractor in 2023.

V. Call for candidates

Please consult our job offers on the website: JOBS

